

CHAPTER 7 ACTIVITY
Analyzing

Directions: Read through the list of responses that communities take to youth gangs and then underline whether each response is an example of prevention, intervention, or suppression.

1. Remove gang-related graffiti or tagging as soon as it appears.
 Prevention Intervention Suppression
2. Arrest and prosecute gang leaders who commit crimes.
 Prevention Intervention Suppression
3. Provide at-risk youths with individual and family case managers.
 Prevention Intervention Suppression
4. Provide drug and alcohol treatment.
 Prevention Intervention Suppression
5. Provide tutoring
 Prevention Intervention Suppression
6. Provide mentoring.
 Prevention Intervention Suppression
7. Provide employment assistance.
 Prevention Intervention Suppression
8. Create statewide database accessible by law enforcement with information on known gang members.
 Prevention Intervention Suppression
9. Increase prison time for persons 18 years and older who are convicted of a felony in which they have paid, threatened, or solicited a minor to participate.
 Prevention Intervention Suppression
10. Increase amount of civil liability of gang members who tag property owners.
 Prevention Intervention Suppression
11. Provide gang members who want to get out with programs including tattoo removal, anger management, and high school equivalency.
 Prevention Intervention Suppression

Copyright © by The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc.